Join the Castaic Lions Club on Tuesday, April 30th at Castaic Middle School for a fire and everyday safety training session. Retired Firefighter Steve Skinner will be leading an informative (yet entertaining!) presentation on what to do in a variety of emergency situations.

You and your family will be trained on the most up-to-date strategies on how to handle events such as fire, earth quakes, and active shooters. You will learn everything from the safest evacuation routes to how to handle panicked peers from a trained Los Angeles fire fighter.

Food will be provided starting at 6:30pm, and the presentation is at 8:30pm. Email us at info@castaiclionsclub.org with any questions, comments, or concerns!
